J. Which documents do you need for the application?

- Valid travel document, e.g. a passport.
- Birth certificate
You only need the birth certificate for the first application.
- Photo of yourself (see point 1 of this explanation).
- Certificate of marriage or a partner certificate, if that applies.
- Document about your divorce or dissolution of your registered partnership, if that applies.
- Document about the adoption, if that applies
- Proof or document about the family relationship
If you want to prove that a person is related to you, you must bring a confirmation.
- Death certificate, if that applies.
- Proof about sufficient health insurance in Austria.
- Proof that you have sufficient income.
For example a work contract, a pay slip or a confirmation that you receive a pension.
It may also be a proof that you own property.

For a settlement permit, a sponsor is necessary in any case. A sponsor is an EEA national or Swiss national who lives in Austria and wants to bring someone from his or her family to Austria.

There are different possibilities how a sponsor can bring you to Austria.

Possibility 1

Are you the live partner of the sponsor (but you are not married or in a registered partnership)?

Then you need

- Proof that you are in a long-term relationship with your sponsor

Possibility 2

Are you another relative? This means that you are related to the sponsor.

For example, you are his or her sister or brother, aunt or uncle or you are cousins.

Then you need

- Proof by the sponsor that he or she covers your basic needs and provides you maintenance payments OR
- proof that you have lived in the same household with the sponsor in your country OR
- proof that you are seriously ill and the sponsor has to take care of you

As a relative you also need to submit in any case:

- a liability declaration by your sponsor.
- proof that you have already learned German at the simplest level (A1). This is stated in § 21a Settlement and Residence Act.
You only need this evidence for the first application.
